Symposium Committee

Monday, March 15, 2021 • Time: 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

- ❖ Attendees: Lucia Jones, Diana Lady, Amy Gaier, Sam Bradfield, Kim Downes, Neshia Wilson, and Alissa Rankin
- ❖ Vote on theme
 - Options voted on:
 - I can see the light despite all the negativity
 - I recognize value on simple things I took for granted
 - The power of smile saying we are to make it
 - The value of life and be able to breath
 - I'm simple grateful
 - A New Normal-Resiliency & Growth
 - Everything Connects—Unification in Uncertain Times
 - Community Health Restoration- Addressing COVID-19 lessons learned | Resiliency & Self-care | Social justice | Vulnerable populations
 - KS Community Health Workers—Growing from Strength to Strength
 - Community Health Workers and the Global Burdens--- Addressing COVID-19 lessons learned | Resiliency & Self-care | Social justice | Vulnerable populations
 - Bridging the gap between communities and health and social services
 - Supporting and Strengthening the Role of Community Health Workers in Public Health
 - Staying Strong
 - Top selection: “Everything Connects- Unification in Uncertain Times”
- ❖ Funding update
 - We received $10,000 in donations from sponsors for our Symposium.
 - Last year we paid for subtitles, interpreters, award for CHW of the Year Award.
 - The expenses online aren't as obvious, but there are many technical pieces that add up quickly.
 - Will consider swag—discuss at next meeting
 - Ideas: Lottery type of thing, pay for class, nice dinner, “door prize/drawing”—gift cards

NOTES

- Work in CHW of the Year, Honorable mention
- ❖ Keynote speaker update and discussion
 - Lieutenant Governor Toland will do intro for the event, only at the 1st half of the Symposium
 - Ideas: Denise O. Smith (Executive Director for NACHW), Kendra Baldrige (Director of Bureau of Community Health Systems at KDHE), Ryan Lester (Director of Bureau of Health Promotion), Rachel Sisson (Bureau of Family Health). KDHE staff could discuss on a panel presentation.
 - Ideas: Have someone speak about the values of community, etc. and then have a panel of lessons learned, share importance of CHW work, opportunities to connect, etc. Someone who is inspirational that speaks life into people about CHWs and connects with the human aspect.
 - Broderick Crawford as a panelist
 - Psychology, anthropology, writer – WSU students, professor
 - Adverse Childhood Experiences, trauma-informed care – Vanessa Lohf
 - Wayne McKammie in Kansas City at Focus Seminars, Kim will reach out.
 - ◆ Could he pre-record so that we can have the subtitles added?
 - ◆ What would be the cost?
 - ◆ <http://focusseminar.com/>
 - Find someone who can share kudos (medical professionals, others in the community to uplift CHWs)
 - TED Talk—add discussion after? Or direct people to see the talk
- ❖ Diversity, Equity and Inclusion training discussion
 - Dr. Mayes is sending a list of people who could do DEI training in the state
 - This could potentially be an hour-session, could be recurring on the dates listed below.
- ❖ 1-hour session dates and topics discussion (these dates are the breakouts to make up in the virtual space)
 - Tuesday, September 7 at 1pm-3pm (coalition meeting included)
 - Tuesday, October 5 at 1pm-2pm
 - Tuesday, November 2 at 1pm-2pm
 - Tuesday, December 7 at 1pm-3pm (coalition meeting included)
 - We will think of topics for these sessions as these dates near.

NOTES

❖ Next steps

- Look at FOCUS Seminar website <http://focusseminar.com/>, seek out motivational speakers and send them to Alissa no later than 3/22.
- Alissa will create Microsoft Teams to chat about speakers
- Team think through potential other keynote speakers.
