- Kansas CHW Symposium Fall Sessions
  - September 30th – Kansas Tribal Nutrition
    - Registration is open for this session. Please register.
  - October—18th is the best time to have the University of Kansas share on both their RadXUp and 2103 Local Health Equity Action Teams projects.
  - November 10th at 10am – There is an interest in having someone share about Trans Health. Potential speakers include ideas from Kelly Nightengale (e.g., Kim Tillson or Tori Gleason).
  - December 7, 2021 with the Quarterly KCHWC meeting. SNAP-Ed Education is the topic that was selected and Alissa will reach out to Tandy Rundus and Lisa Ross at Kansas State Research and Extension.
- Team discussed what would be the WOW factor for the 2022 Symposium.

Recommendations included:

- Take time to stop and celebrate.
- Highlight Kansas State Research and Extension partnership and work on health equity.
- Host Brett Culp or Marvin Sparks as a speaker.
- Go through the history and highlight the new grants and update maps
